

About Friendship

Friendship means a very good person in our life.

A few relationships on earth never die.

Friendship is an ART in which no one can explain the meaning of the ART fully.

A friend is a gift of our life. The friend gives full freedom of yourself. If your life starts with a friend, your life will end with a friend. If you have no friends you have no life. A true friend is someone who knows all about you and the friendship may last forever.

We always endeavour to sense the full meaning of friendship forever.

I believe there is no word in the dictionary to express how good you feel when you have caring friends.

“Real friends don't get offended when you insult them”

A true friend is one who accepts your faults, gives you advice and who depends upon you, even in your absence.

Friendship is a golden thread which binds us together.

A friend is a sweet person when your life isn't so, so sweet.

True friendship is like a pretty flower, worn close to the heart, . . . never gets withered by age, but gets more beautiful with time. . .

*Friendship is a single soul dwelling in two bodies.
A friend is one who knows you and loves you just the same.*

Thank you, friend, for making my day so wonderful

Happy Friendship Day!
